MENTAL HEALTH CONFERENCE TO BE HELD IN MAY

A Mental Health Conference will be held May 23 - 25, 1979, at the Model Secondary School for the Deaf. The conference will address concerns in the delivery of effective mental health services to the hearing impaired adolescent, and will focus on the following areas:

- Issues of Mental Health in the Classroom and Approaches to Resolving Problems.
- Innovative Approaches to Counseling.
- Integrating Mental Health Programs into Residential Programs.
- Bridging the Gap Between Home and School.
- Current Trends in Psychotherapy with Deaf Adolescents.

Assessment - Approaches and Implications.

A number of distinguished professional workers with the deaf in the areas of counseling, education, psychology, psychiatry and social work services will be making presentations during this three-day conference.

For further details, write or call Ms. Carolyn Williamson, Chairperson, Mental Health Planning Committee, Model Secondary School for the Deaf, ext. 861.

WANTED

Need strong and young helping hands for sailing and yachting work? Young men are interested in helping you prepare your boat for spring and summer pleasures.

These workers are willing to help with sanding, painting, hauling, etc. If you are in need of this type of help contact these experienced sail and yacht crews:

NEWS SERVICE ESTABLISHED

A TTY News Service has been established by Ann Wilson, of Deafpride and Phil Aiello of Nationwide Telecom Service. News submitted by TTY users will be changed once a week. Messages left on their answering machine will be inserted on the TTY service for the next edition.

If interested call 526-6964 and leave your news item.

JESUS CHRIST, SUPERSTAR TO BE PRESENTED AT MSSD

The Performing Arts Department of MSSD is pleased to announce its spring play, "Jesus Christ, Superstar." This popular rock musical will be presented on May 10, 11, 12, 17, 18 and 19 at 8:00 p.m. in the MSSD auditorium. There will also be 10:00 a.m. performances on Friday, May 11 and 18.

"Superstar" will feature approximately 45 cast members -- including several MSSD faculty and staff people -- who will sign and dance 26 songs, accompanied by a live chorus and orchestra.

The play centers on the last week of Christ's life and the events that lead to his death. The audience has the new perspective of seeing these events through Judas' eyes and learning about his motivation to betray Christ.

To make your reservations for this super event, call or write Ms. Susan Galasso at MSSD, Box #36, ext. 641. Tickets are $2.00 for students and $4.00 for others. Gallaudet seniors and their families, in particular, may want to include this as a special activity during graduation weekend.

FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION OBTAINS TTY

The First Federal Savings and Loan Association at 13th & G St., N.W., are now expanding their services to the deaf community and have obtained a TTY on a 60 day trial basis. If response is good, the bank will install this device permanently.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Ron Nomeland will present a paper entitled, "Some Considerations in Selecting a Micro-Computer for School," on April 17, at the annual Lincoln Symposium for administrators and educators of the deaf. The symposium is sponsored by the MDPHI (Media Development Project for the Hearing Impaired) at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

--An article about Bernard Bragg appeared in the Sunday magazine section of the Washington Post on April 8. The magazine has a regular series of "life slice" pieces which focus on individuals. The author of the piece is Beryl Benderly, who wrote the article on Gallaudet for The Washingtonian (October '78).

--Dona Burney, assistant professor of Business Administration, has been named to Who's Who of American Women for 1979-80. Dona has been both an associate Brookings fellow and an NDEA Fellow. She is in her second year at Gallaudet teaching accounting and MBA courses.

--Norma Buemi, Matt Searls, Fran Taylor, Vera Frollain-Grisell, Cathy Abernathy and Shelley Fields attended the Annual Conference on University Health on March 29 and 30. This year's annual conference had as its topic, Student Mental Health, and was held at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

--Emma Norwitz has recently been promoted to the position of Research Assistant in the Planning Office. Part of her responsibilities will include collecting data from people all over campus. So, if you see Emma coming, be prepared. She may have a dozen or so questions for you!
